

Decrees of Purification

The Sacred Words of Power from the Great Mother of Creation<sup>1</sup>

*Magic so pure is brought now to man
In the Book of Life, in a gold-dipped pen
Recorded they are; this you must know
So that when you speak it makes it so..*

*The face of the Goddess shines through these words
To banish illusion wherever they're heard...*

*The following you read
No translation you need
For it's written in gold
unseen and untold
In Mother's tongue in words unseen
Angels echo the words you mean
Filled with power, they're sacred and true
What you speak is what you do
A gift from the Mother they surely are
To the ones She has gathered from near and far
To restore the balance of power and light
To heal and uplift, to do what is right
White magic they are, newly restored
Hidden from cycles of darkness before
They're given this day, both ancient and new
Create through the heart and they'll work for you
So simple they seem but they're not as they appear
They're far more than they seem it must be clear
Speak exactly the way they're written for you
The words are of power and they will come true

Decrees of Purification

Through decrees of purification in the living Light Language of the Mother of Creation, in this audio you are supported to deeply imbibe the living light into the cells of your body. The Light Language and decrees were given to us (through Almine) in 2006. It is stated that when spoken from a true heart, it must come to pass.

All decrees are spoken on behalf of all beings—in all pure 'magic', whatever is done is done for all of creation.

Enter into deep meditation for this audio, make sure you are not interrupted, and open yourself to receiving the light coding from the statements. This language is so pure and potent it impacts the DNA as well as reorders life. The decrees are recorded subliminally to brainwave entrainment music of (7.83 Hz) the pulsation of the planet...the pulsation that sustains all life. This is also the exact resonance of Pinoline, the hormone produced by the pineal gland. It is also the frequency that the DNA uses to replicate, and the frequency measured in the hands of great healers. As the pineal activates, so serotonin is transformed to melatonin, which is the super-oxidant of nature that prevents aging. In the meditation, you are led to release all tension that is cause of linear time..in linear time we are cut off from Source and operate outside of eternity.

Linear time produces thought, and keeps us bound to the illusion through the mind's misinterpretation.

Thought must never lead; it is servant to deeper consciousness. When mind leads, you are caught in the illusion that the external world is 'real', and then you try to impose your will on it. Or the mind runs amok and simply reacts to external stimulus, in which case you have lost touch with your true being. You then make yourself an opposite to the world.

When you live with no tension, you transcend duality. No tension means no resistance to life, and then you flow on the river of grace....you are a current within it. When you train the mind to stillness, you will have awareness and knowing from depth—only then are you self-sovereign.

In Love Without End (Glenda Green), the Master states that 'following the increase of life' is one of the precepts on the sure path to success. The increase of life is followed by the day to day, moment to moment attitudes and states of being. Live these statements and you will flourish and all life will be enhanced by your presence.

In the list of decrees (below), the first statement is embedded in the audio in the light language that works for all life. The second statement is an affirmation that (loosely) connects this decree to how you may live it to make it so in service to all life.

Audio Details and How to Use:

While moving into deep relaxation, first through a trypnaural entrainment to activate the feel-good hormones in the brain, followed by entrainment to the pulsation of the planet, known as the Schumann frequency (7.83 Hz), the audio contains powerful decrees for purification of body and environment through reverencing the Mother of Creation. An angel elixir plays for the last 3 minutes of each round of decrees, to mark the completion of the decrees. These are repeated to fill the 25 minutes of entrainment music. You may stop after completion of the angelic elixir, or keep going for up the three rounds.

The angel elixir come from the Angel of Joyous Possibilities, who reveals to us the endless possibilities that open to us on our attitude of joy. The cosmic script is not predetermined; rather it is an endless array of joyous possibilities.

Each time you play the decrees, you strengthen this reality for all life—that is the power contained therein. There is no quicker way to accelerate awakening than to serve all life. Allow these decrees and affirmations to spill over into new attitudes of greater conscientiousness in how you affect all life.

Another suggestion is to state the 'companion affirmations', during one of the replays of the decrees. You may select a few and concentrate only on those. Feel into them and be in reverence and joy!
