

Spinal Clearing Support

We hold many programs in the spine and pranic tube that cause breaks in the pranic channels and blockages to deeper awareness. So long as spine and pranic tube are separated, we are caught in separation consciousness, experiencing life at 'face value'.

All processes and meditations that work on clearing spine/pranic tube/pranic channels can be enhanced with the Fragrance Alchemy oils.

The spine points are not easy to reach on your own, so I have included several alternative treatment locations. The entire body is mapped onto hand and ear, and the spine is easily located in these representations (referred to as 'homunculi' (plural); homunculus means 'little man', and is term coined in 1600s pertaining to alchemy).

Fragrance Alchemy:

- Apply Blend of the Gods to the Du-20 point at the top of the head
- Apply Goddess Blend to the tailbone area, and to the K-1 points under the feet
- Apply Flower of Saffron to UB-10 points (mid neck, about an inch from the cervical spine, bilaterally).
- Then use ear or middle finger as homunculi for the body, and apply Blend of Gods to the areas corresponding to the cervical spine to about midway into the thoracic spine.
- Apply Goddess Blend to the rest of the spine, from mid thoracic, through lumbar to sacral spine. Sacrum is not depicted on the hand picture, but apply right to coccyx area.
